Our go-to. Bourbon, sugar and bitters, with the glass smoked before we pour. You get a little campfire on the nose and a nice slow sip after.

Fall Apple Cinnamon Old Fashioned

Our fall twist. Apple cinnamon simple syrup stands in for the sugar, and a cap of cherry foam goes on top. Warm, a little sweet, and about as fall as it gets.

Whiskey Sour
Built on Maker's Mark

Bourbon, fresh lemon and a little sugar, shaken hard and poured over ice. Bright, easy and always a good call.

Manhattan

Rye, sweet vermouth and bitters, stirred cold and served up with a cherry. Short, strong and about as classic as it gets.

A whiskey sour that got dressed up. Rye, lemon and sugar with a float of red wine on top that gives it a deep ruby color and a little dry bite.

Gold Rush
Built on New Riff Bottled in Bond Bourbon

Bourbon, fresh lemon and honey syrup, shaken cold. Think of a whiskey sour with honey instead of sugar. Rounder, a little softer and very easy to like.

Revolver

Gin, lemon and a little sugar over crushed ice, with a drizzle of berry liqueur that bleeds down through the glass. Tart, fruity and pretty to look at.
